

Please allow time for public and congressional comment before deciding on allowing any relaxation of rules regulating the concentration of ownership of public broadcast frequencies. Diversity of opinion, region, and size of aggregate ownership should be required in distributing these rights of ownership. this is the American way.